Chapter 1 by Johnathan Derrick

Our story begins here in a dark room a satanic room, the house owner has just finished completing a ritual. The owner took interest in summoning demons, on this night they decided they would preform this ritual on a doll, as the owner or as you now may want to call the summoner closed the door in disappointment at what the thought was a failed ritual the demon brought itself into the doll. as it entered the doll became retched and ugly horrid and... I find there are no words to fit its description.The summoner came back to see that the doll was gone,They became scared and went to go find the doll before it could kill any one.While the summoner was looking for the doll it seemed that the doll had walk into the kitchen to see the knifes in the drawer we gone! sirens were heard outside of the house in the neighborhood as the first kill had been made. the "doll" was so sinister the summoner was surprised the victims didn't die before the "doll" had a chance to kill them.
